

Who are the Easton Women of Today?

Community Service, Personal Growth,
Leadership Training and Fostering Friendships!

We are women who:

- Care;
- Want to make a difference in our communities;
- Want to have fun;
- Want training in leadership and personal growth;
- Want to make great friendships along the way.

The Women of Today is a national organization with over 3,000 members. Massachusetts has seven chapters and over 220 members.

Since 1997, Easton Women of Today, Inc. (EWOT) has sponsored many events locally such as the Holiday Breakfast (as a participant of the Easton Lions Club Holiday Festival), Family Skating at Yardley-Wood Rink, and the Kids Art Contest.

EWOT has financially supported deserving organizations such as the Easton Food Pantry, Oliver Ames High School Scholarships, Easton Council on Aging, YMCA and many more. We also assist local families in need. We provide our members opportunities for leadership and teambuilding training. We also have a great deal of fun along the way attending events such as socials, book clubs, ceramics painting and just socializing as a group.

EWOT has 30 terrific members from all walks of life. We are professional women, stay-at-home moms and home based business owners to name a few. We are at different stages in our lives: single, married, with and without children, young and seniors. Each one of us is special to the success of the chapter.

We generally meet on the 4th Thursday of each month at the Center for Non-Profit Management, 16 Belmont Street (Route 123), Easton at 7:15 P.M.

For further information please email eastonwot@yahoo.com or call (508) 238-9002.

Who are the Easton Women of Today?

Community Service, Personal Growth,
Leadership Training and Fostering Friendships!

We are women who:

- Care;
- Want to make a difference in our communities;
- Want to have fun;
- Want training in leadership and personal growth;
- Want to make great friendships along the way.

The Women of Today is a national organization with over 3,000 members. Massachusetts has seven chapters and over 220 members.

Since 1997, Easton Women of Today, Inc. (EWOT) has sponsored many events locally such as the Holiday Breakfast (as a participant of the Easton Lions Club Holiday Festival), Family Skating at Yardley-Wood Rink, and the Kids Art Contest.

EWOT has financially supported deserving organizations such as the Easton Food Pantry, Oliver Ames High School Scholarships, Easton Council on Aging, YMCA and many more. We also assist local families in need. We provide our members opportunities for leadership and teambuilding training. We also have a great deal of fun along the way attending events such as socials, book clubs, ceramics painting and just socializing as a group.

EWOT has 30 terrific members from all walks of life. We are professional women, stay-at-home moms and home based business owners to name a few. We are at different stages in our lives: single, married, with and without children, young and seniors. Each one of us is special to the success of the chapter.

We generally meet on the 4th Thursday of each month at the Center for Non-Profit Management, 16 Belmont Street (Route 123), Easton at 7:15 P.M.

For further information please email eastonwot@yahoo.com or call (508) 238-9002.